December 5 & 6 | Ent Center for the Arts

Where Purpose Meets Performance

Christmas This Year is Friends of Club 21's signature holiday production—an original, inclusive performance featuring individuals with Down syndrome as lead artists.

Blending music, dance, and storytelling with professional production, this event brings together more than 3,000 audience members each year. It is a meaningful and high-quality experience that reflects the talent, dignity, and individuality of every performer on stage.

Your sponsorship helps make this production possible and supports year-round opportunities through our Arts Academy.

PREMIER SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES — $10,000+

IN-KIND SPONSORSHIPS

In-kind donors are recognized at the $500 sponsor level and included in the printed program. These contributions help support key elements of the production and audience experience.

Your sponsorship fuels a production where individuals with Down syndrome shine as artists, leaders, and performers.

Friends of Club 21 exists to foster supported communities and create opportunities for individuals with Down syndrome to flourish.

Christmas This Year provides a platform where individuals with Down syndrome and other special abilities are seen, valued, and given the opportunity to perform at a high level. Your support helps expand that impact—both on stage and throughout the year.
